

Instructor: Peter Mangiaracina

Gerund / Infinitive – Statements + Question Forms (Affirmative & Negative)

1. It is important to arrive on time.
Arriving on time is important.

Is it important to arrive on time?
Is arriving on time important?

Yes, it is important to arrive on time.
Yes, arriving on time is important.

2. It is dangerous not to wear a helmet.
Not wearing a helmet is dangerous.

Is it dangerous not to wear a helmet?
Is not wearing a helmet dangerous?

Yes, it is dangerous not to wear a helmet.
Yes, not wearing a helmet is dangerous.

3. It is healthy to walk every day.
Walking every day is healthy.

Is it healthy to walk every day?
Is walking every day healthy?

Yes, it is healthy to walk every day.
Yes, walking every day is healthy.

4. It is irresponsible not to lock the door.
Not locking the door is irresponsible.

Is it irresponsible not to lock the door?
Is not locking the door irresponsible?

Yes, it is irresponsible not to lock the door.
Yes, not locking the door is irresponsible.

5. It is helpful to take notes.
Taking notes is helpful.

Is it helpful to take notes?
Is taking notes helpful?

Yes, it is helpful to take notes.
Yes, taking notes is helpful.

6. It is risky not to save your data.
Not saving your data is risky.

Is it risky not to save your data?
Is not saving your data risky?

Yes, it is risky not to save your data.
Yes, not saving your data is risky.

7. It is polite to thank people.
Thanking people is polite.

Is it polite to thank people?
Is thanking people polite?

Yes, it is polite to thank people.
Yes, thanking people is polite.

8. It is expensive not to compare prices.
Not comparing prices is expensive.

Is it expensive not to compare prices?
Is not comparing prices expensive?

Yes, it is expensive not to compare prices.
Yes, not comparing prices is expensive.

9. It is necessary to update the software.
Updating the software is necessary.

Is it necessary to update the software?
Is updating the software necessary?

Yes, it is necessary to update the software.
Yes, updating the software is necessary.

10. It is confusing not to read the instructions.
Not reading the instructions is confusing.

Is it confusing not to read the instructions?
Is not reading the instructions confusing?

Yes, it is confusing not to read the instructions.
Yes, not reading the instructions is confusing.