

Idioms with Food

Food Idioms

1. Corny

English: not funny; uninteresting; old-fashioned in a bad way

Spanish: no gracioso; poco interesante; cursi

Sample sentences:

- I heard a corny joke yesterday.
 - That movie was too corny for me.
 - His speech sounded a little corny.
-

2. Lemon

English: something defective; a machine or product that does not work well

Spanish: algo defectuoso; una máquina o producto que sale malo

Sample sentences:

- My new car is a lemon.
 - This printer is a lemon.
 - He bought a lemon and had to return it.
-

3. Nuts about

English: to like or love something very much

Spanish: gustarle mucho algo; estar loco por algo

Sample sentences:

- She is nuts about jazz.
- My son is nuts about video games.

- I'm nuts about Italian food.
-

4. Cold fish

English: an unfriendly or unemotional person

Spanish: una persona fría; alguien poco amable o sin emociones

Sample sentences:

- My boss is a cold fish.
 - He seems like a cold fish at first.
 - Don't be such a cold fish.
-

5. Butter someone up

English: to be nice to someone in order to get something

Spanish: halagar a alguien para conseguir algo; hacer la pelota

Sample sentences:

- He tried to butter up the teacher.
 - She buttered up her boss before asking for a day off.
 - Don't butter me up. Just tell me what you want.
-

6. Fishy

English: suspicious; sounding false or dishonest

Spanish: sospechoso; dudoso; que suena falso

Sample sentences:

- That excuse sounds fishy.
 - Something fishy is going on.
 - His story seemed a little fishy.
-

7. Cream of the crop

English: the best of a group

Spanish: lo mejor del grupo; la élite

Sample sentences:

- These students are the cream of the crop.
 - That restaurant uses the cream of the crop.
 - Only the cream of the crop got the job.
-

8. In hot water

English: in trouble

Spanish: en problemas; en líos

Sample sentences:

- He is in hot water at work.
 - I got in hot water with my wife.
 - She was in hot water after missing the meeting.
-

9. Bite off more than you can chew

English: to try to do more than you can handle

Spanish: intentar hacer más de lo que uno puede; abarcar demasiado

Sample sentences:

- I bit off more than I could chew.
 - Don't bite off more than you can chew.
 - She bit off more than she could chew at work.
-

10. Cry over spilled milk

English: to be sorry about something that cannot be changed

Spanish: lamentarse por algo que no se puede cambiar; llorar sobre leche derramada

Sample sentences:

- Don't cry over spilled milk.
- We made a mistake, but there's no use crying over spilled milk.
- He kept crying over spilled milk.

11. Take something with a grain of salt

English: not to take something too seriously; to be a little doubtful

Spanish: tomar algo con reservas; no tomárselo muy en serio

Sample sentences:

- Take his advice with a grain of salt.
 - I take online reviews with a grain of salt.
 - You should take that rumor with a grain of salt.
-

12. Take the cake

English: to be unbelievable, surprising, or amazing, often in a bad way

Spanish: ser el colmo; llevarse la palma

Sample sentences:

- That really takes the cake.
 - His excuse takes the cake.
 - Of all the stupid things I heard today, that takes the cake.
-

13. Put all your eggs in one basket

English: to depend completely on one thing

Spanish: poner todos los huevos en la misma cesta; depender de una sola cosa

Sample sentences:

- Don't put all your eggs in one basket.
- He put all his eggs in one basket and lost everything.
- We shouldn't put all our eggs in one basket.

Some more for fun:

- Piece of cake

Something that is very easy.

"The exam was a piece of cake."

- Spill the beans

To reveal a secret.

"Who spilled the beans about the surprise party?"

- Big cheese

An important or powerful person.

"He's the big cheese in that company."

- Bring home the bacon

To be the main provider for the family.

"Bob stays home and takes care of the children. Mary is the CEO of a big company. She brings home the bacon."

- In a pickle

In a difficult or troublesome situation.

"I forgot my wallet and now I'm in a pickle."

- Couch potato

A person who spends a lot of time sitting and watching TV.

"Don't be such a couch potato this weekend."