

Infinitives After Adjectives

Many adjectives are followed by an infinitive:

adjective + to + verb

Examples:

- She was happy to help.
 - They were surprised to see us.
 - I'm afraid to ask.
-

Lucky

Examples

- I was lucky to find a parking space.
- She's lucky to have such supportive friends.
- We're lucky to live near the beach.

Questions

- Were you lucky to get tickets for the concert?
 - Do you feel lucky to have your job?
 - Have you ever been lucky to meet someone famous?
-

Kind

Examples

- It was kind of you to help me.
- She was kind to offer us a ride.
- They were kind to invite us.

Questions

- Was it kind of your neighbor to help you?
 - Who was kind enough to help you recently?
 - Is it kind to give money to strangers?
-

Sorry

Examples

- I'm sorry to hear that.
- She's sorry to leave so soon.
- We're sorry to disappoint you.

Questions

- Are you sorry to see the weekend end?
 - Have you ever been sorry to make a decision?
 - Were you sorry to leave your hometown?
-

Afraid

Examples

- I'm afraid to fly.
- She's afraid to tell the truth.
- They're afraid to take risks.

Questions

- Are you afraid to speak in public?
 - Were you afraid to travel alone?
 - What are you afraid to do?
-

Willing

Examples

- I'm willing to help.
- She's willing to work overtime.
- They're willing to negotiate.

Questions

- Are you willing to learn a new language?
 - Would you be willing to move abroad?
 - Are people willing to change?
-

Wise

Examples

- It was wise to save money.
- She was wise to ask for advice.
- They were wise to leave early.

Questions

- Was it wise to invest in that company?
- Is it wise to exercise regularly?
- Was it wise to wait?

Fortunate

Examples

- We were fortunate to find a hotel.
- She was fortunate to survive the accident.
- I was fortunate to get the opportunity.

Questions

- Have you been fortunate to travel a lot?
 - Were you fortunate to have good teachers?
 - Do you feel fortunate to live where you do?
-

Surprised

Examples

- I was surprised to see him.
- She was surprised to win.
- They were surprised to hear the news.

Questions

- Were you surprised to pass the exam?
 - What surprised you to learn recently?
 - Were you surprised to see anyone today?
-

Careless

Examples

- He was careless to leave the door unlocked.
- It was careless to lose the documents.
- She was careless to ignore the warning.

Questions

- Was it careless to leave your phone on the bus?
 - Have you ever been careless enough to forget something important?
 - Is it careless to drive while tired?
-

Disappointed

Examples

- I was disappointed to lose the game.
- She was disappointed to hear the news.
- They were disappointed to miss the concert.

Questions

- Were you disappointed to fail a test?
 - What were you disappointed to discover?
 - Are you disappointed to see prices rising?
-

Determined

Examples

- He's determined to succeed.
- She's determined to lose weight.
- They're determined to finish the project.

Questions

- Are you determined to improve your English?
 - What are you determined to achieve?
 - Were you ever determined to prove someone wrong?
-

Reluctant

Examples

- I was reluctant to leave.
- She was reluctant to complain.
- They were reluctant to invest.

Questions

- Are you reluctant to change jobs?
 - Why are some people reluctant to learn new technology?
 - Were you reluctant to move?
-

Anxious

Examples

- I'm anxious to hear the results.
- She's anxious to start her new job.
- They're anxious to see their family.

Questions

- Are you anxious to go on vacation?
- What are you anxious to accomplish this year?
- Were you anxious to receive the news?