

Uses of the Word “Over”

Over = During

I went to my parents' house over the weekend.
We met several times over the summer vacation.
Many people get colds over the winter months.

Over = More Than

I read over six chapters last night.
There were over fifty people at the party.
The flight was delayed over two hours.

Over = Finished / Ended

The movie was over at ten o'clock.
When is the school year over?
The concert is finally over.

Over = Again

You'll have to do it over; it's not correct.
Let's start the exercise over from the beginning.
I watched that scene over because I missed the dialogue.

Over = Above

Planes fly over the city at night.
The painting is hanging over the sofa.
There's a mirror over the sink.

Over = On (to cover)

She put a blanket over the baby.
He wore a mask over his face.
She threw a shawl over her shoulders.

Over = Across

I stepped over the line.
The cat jumped over the puddle.
We walked over the bridge.

Over = Beyond

The tall man sat in front of me, and I couldn't see over his head.

The town is over the mountain.

He threw the ball over the wall.

Over = Toward / In a Direction

Come over here.

Stand over there.

Walk over to the store.

Over = The Other Side

Turn the hamburger over so it cooks evenly.

Let's cross over to the other side of the street.

She rolled over in bed.

Over = Everywhere / In Many Places

There are papers all over the table.

I've traveled all over the world.

I've been looking all over for my keys.

Over = Down / Upset Position

I knocked over a chair.

The wind blew the trash can over.

He tripped and fell over.