

Buying a Sweater

CHAPTER 10

Supplemental Dialogue for the Beginner Workbook

by Peter Mangiaracina

(Wanda is at a department store in the women's department, looking at some sweaters. A salesperson approaches her and asks if she needs help.)

SALESPERSON

Good afternoon, ma'am. Do you need any help?

WANDA

Yes, please. Do you have these sweaters in my size?

SALESPERSON

Sure, what size are you?

WANDA

I'm a medium.

SALESPERSON

Yes, we have this sweater in medium. Would you like to see it?

WANDA

Yes, please. What colors do the sweaters come in?

SALESPERSON

They come in red, yellow, and blue.

WANDA

I think I'll go for the red one. Can I see it?

SALESPERSON

Of course. Here it is.

WANDA

Is there a fitting room where I can try it on?

SALESPERSON

Yes, there is. It's over there on the right.

(Wanda takes the sweater and heads to the fitting room. She tries on the sweater and comes out.)

WANDA

How does it look? Does it fit well?

SALESPERSON

It fits fine.

WANDA

Are the sleeves too long?

SALESPERSON

No, they're not. The length is just right.

WANDA

Great. How much does it cost?

SALESPERSON

It's $100.

WANDA

Okay, I'll take it. Do you take credit cards?

SALESPERSON

Yes, we do. You can meet me at the register.

WANDA

Thank you. I'll meet you there.

(Wanda and the salesperson head to the register.)

SALESPERSON

That'll be $100, please.

WANDA

(Hands over her credit card.)

Here you go.

SALESPERSON

(Processes the payment.)

Thank you, ma'am. Have a good day.

WANDA

You too. Goodbye.
