

Checking In for a Flight

CHAPTER 11

Supplemental Dialogue for the Beginner Workbook

by Peter Mangiaracina

Bob is at the ticket counter at the airport

BOB

Good morning. I'm here to check in for my flight to Chicago.

CLERK

Good morning, sir. May I have your name, please?

BOB

Certainly. It's Bob Booberson.

CLERK

Thank you, Mr. Booberson. May I see your passport or other ID, please?

BOB

Sure, here's my driver's license.

CLERK

Great, thank you. Now, could you please place your luggage on the scale to check the weight?

BOB

Of course. Here you go.

(Bob places the luggage on the conveyor belt)

CLERK

Thank you. Your luggage is within the weight limit. Here's your boarding pass. You'll be departing from Gate 23. The flight is scheduled to leave at 2:00 PM.

BOB

Thank you. How long will it take to get to Chicago?

CLERK

Certainly, the flight duration is approximately two hours and fifteen minutes.

BOB

That's good to know. How do you get to the gate??

CLERK

Proceed to the security checkpoint. You'll need to present your boarding pass and ID there, and also before you board at the gate.

BOB

I'll keep that in mind. Thank you for your assistance.

CLERK

You're welcome, Mr. Booberson. Have a pleasant flight to Chicago!

BOB

Thank you. Goodbye!
