

Want to, Have to, Need to

CHAPTER 10

Supplemental Dialogue for the Beginner Workbook

by Peter Mangiaracina

It's Saturday morning. Eli visits Lili at her house.

ELI

Hi Lili, how are you doing today?

LILI

I'm good, thanks for asking. What do you want to do today?

ELI

I want to go to the park and have a picnic. Do you want to join me?

LILI

Sure, that sounds like fun. But I have to finish cleaning my house first.

ELI

Okay, no problem. I'll get a cup of coffee at the cafeteria on the corner and wait. How much more do you need to do?

LILI

I just have a little bit more to do. I finished most of it yesterday.

ELI

Great, let me know when you're finished. We don't have to rush.

(Lili finishes her work and calls Eli.)

LILI

I finished my housework! Now we can go to the park.

ELI

Awesome, I'll be there in five minutes!

(Eli arrives at Lili's house)

ELI

Oh! I forgot! Do I need to buy anything for the picnic?

LILI

No, I already have everything we need. I made sandwiches, and packed fruit and drinks.

ELI

Perfect, thank you! You didn't have to pack all of that, but I'm glad you did.

LILI

No problem, I enjoy having picnics. They're fun and relaxing.

ELI

I agree, they're one of my favorite things to do, too. Let's go enjoy the nice weather!
